THE WORK OF CORNELIO CAMPOS
SUEÑOS AMERICANOS | AMERICAN DREAMS

Fredric Jameson Gallery, Friedl Building, Duke University. Until September 24, 2012

September 14, Fredric Jameson Gallery. 3:00 - 5:00 PM
Panel discussion: the work of Cornelio Campos
Cornelio Campos, Independent Artist
Maria DeGuzmán, English & Comparative Literature, Director of Latina/o Studies at UNC-CH
José Galvéz, Independent Artist
Shelley Garrigan, Foreign Languages & Literatures, NCSU
Pedro Lasch, Art, Art History, & Visual Studies, Duke University
Moderated by: Miguel Rojas-Sotelo, CLACS, Duke University
Light Reception

September 19, Fredric Jameson Gallery. 6:00 - 7:30 PM
Closing Reception
Beginning with a 30 minute guided tour by the artist

Note: The Fredric Jameson Gallery is located at Friedl Building in East Campus, Duke University. Parking is available in city

Presented by: Center for Global Studies and the Humanities, Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, Fredric Jameson Gallery, and Program in Latino/a Studies in the Global South, Duke University

Thanks to: Altha Cravey, UNC-CH Geography Department; Gabriela Valdivia, UNC-CH Geography Department; Joseph Polis, NCSU International Studies; Tracy Carthart, Duke Center for Global Studies and the Humanities; Fredric Jameson Gallery Coordinator; Jenny Sneed Williams, Duke Program in Latino/a Studies in the Global South; Miguel Rojas-Sotelo, Duke Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies